.....RESPONDENT(S)

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to To issue a writ, order or direction one in the nature of mandamus i) declaring the action of the respondents in not considering the case of the petitioner while considering the unqualified and their own choicest candidates without even calling the petitioner for interview is arbitrary illegal, discriminative and mala fide, ii) all consequential benefits may be given to the petitioner.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.M.RAMA RAO

Counsel for the Respondent No.1: MR.D.LINGA RAO

Counsel for the Respondent No.2: Government Pleader for Cooperation

The Court made the following :

::ORAL ORDER::

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since the petitioner had been terminated from service, he instituted another writ petition challenging the termination. This writ petition is for the relief of consideration of his case for appointment in any suitable post. He had been appointed subsequently and has also been terminated. Hence the writ petition does not survive for adjudication, is the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner.

In the circumstances, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
